I was also kind of surprised at how far back the game went in time; it was created back in 2021, which I know is quite a long time ago. It's kind of scary how quickly things have changed since then. But though I am young, I thought that Minecraft was always meant for little kids; unlike Roblox, it wasn't purchased by me or my parents, and there were no advertisements present. So my opinion on both games is that they are really great for little kids because they're safe and easy to use. For adults, they are not worth the time. But from what I have heard, and from my own experiences, Roblox is a game that all kindergartners should be playing. It's definitely not recommended for adults or even teenagers.

I also remember back when Minecraft was first released, how difficult it was to find anyone who was willing to play with you or help you if your work didn't work out; but I did find my lovely wonderful best friend through Roblox and we play together every single day. Even though there is no one on my friends list, I can still go into Roblox and join a game with other people. When I do that, my friend will always join me if she's in the same room. But even so, I never have any actual friends in-game because it becomes a very lonely experience as time progresses.
